

St Kilian's School Collection Notice

1. St Kilian's School collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents or guardians and family members before and during the course of a student's enrolment at St Kilian's School. This may be in writing, through SIMON, Google Drive or in the course of conversations and may be direct from the individual or from another source. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable St Kilian's School, Catholic Education Offices and the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria Ltd (CECV) to meet its educational, administrative and duty of care responsibilities to the student to enable them to take part in all the activities of St Kilian's School.
2. Some of the information St Kilian's School collects is to satisfy St Kilian's School's legal obligations, particularly to enable St Kilian's School to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a school require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts and Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. Health information about students (which includes information about any disability as defined by the Disability Discrimination Act 1992) is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988. St Kilian's School may require medical reports about students from time to time and may otherwise collect sensitive information about students and their families.
5. If any personal information requested by St Kilian's School is not provided, this may affect St Kilian's School's ability to enrol a student, respond to enquiries, provide the student with educational and support services or allow a person to visit St Kilian's School.
6. St Kilian's School may disclose personal and sensitive information for administrative, educational and support purposes (or may permit the information to be directly collected by third parties). This may include to:
 - School service providers such as the CECV, Catholic Education Offices, school governing bodies and other dioceses
 - third party service providers that provide online educational and assessment support services, document and data management services, training and support services, hosting services, and software-as-a-services applications (such as the Integrated Catholic Online Network (ICON) and Google's G Suite)
 - CECV and Catholic Education Offices to discharge its responsibilities under the Australian Education Regulation 2013 (Regulation) and the Australian Education Act 2013 (Cth) (AE Act) relating to students with a disability, including ongoing evaluation of funding adequacy for individual students
 - Authorised organisations in accordance with the Child Information Sharing Scheme (CISS) or the Family Violence Information Sharing Scheme (FVISS)
 - CECV to support the training of selected staff in the use of schools' systems, such as ICON
 - another school to facilitate the transfer of a student
 - Federal and State government departments and agencies acting on behalf of the government e.g. for audit purposes

- health service providers, and people providing educational support and health services to St Kilian's School, including specialist visiting teachers, sports coaches, volunteers, counsellors and providers of learning and assessment tools
 - assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority
 - people providing administrative and financial services to St Kilian's School
 - anyone you authorise St Kilian's School to disclose information to; and
 - anyone to whom St Kilian's School is required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including under child protection laws.
7. St Kilian's School is required by the Federal Australian Education Regulation (2013) and Australian Education Act 2013 (Cth) (AE Act) to collect and disclose certain information under the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data (NCCD) on students with a disability. St Kilian's School provides the required information at an individual student level to the Catholic Education Offices and the CECV, as an approved authority. Approved authorities must comply with reporting, record keeping and data quality assurance obligations under the NCCD. Student information provided to the federal government for the purpose of the NCCD does not explicitly identify any student.
 8. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians.
 9. If you make an enrolment application to another School, personal information including health information provided during the application stage may be collected from, or shared with, the other school.
 10. St Kilian's School may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to St Kilian's School that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may reside on a cloud service provider's servers which may be situated outside Australia. Further information about St Kilian's School's use of an online or 'cloud' service providers is contained in St Kilian's School's Privacy Policy.
 11. CES Limited's Privacy Policy, accessible on St Kilian's School's website, sets out how parents or students may seek access to and correction of their personal information which St Kilian's School has collected and holds. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of St Kilian's School's duty of care to the student, where students have provided information in confidence or where St Kilian's School is otherwise required or authorised by law to refuse access. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons (unless, given the grounds for refusal, it would be unreasonable to provide reasons).
 12. St Kilian's School makes reasonable efforts to be satisfied about the protection of any personal information that may be collected, processed and stored outside Australia in connection with any cloud and third party services and will endeavour to ensure it will be located in countries with substantially similar protections as the APPs.

13. Where personal, including sensitive information is held by a cloud computing service provider on behalf of CECV for educational and administrative purposes, it may be stored on servers located within or outside Australia.
14. School personnel and St Kilian's School's service providers, and the CECV and its service providers, may have the ability to access, monitor, use or disclose emails, communications (e.g. instant messaging), documents and associated administrative data for the purposes of administering the ICON system and ensuring its proper use.
15. St Kilian's School may disclose limited personal information to St Kilian's School parish to facilitate religious and sacramental programs, and other activities such as fundraising.
16. CES Limited's Privacy Policy also sets out how parents and students can make a complaint if they believe there has been a breach of the APPs and how the complaint will be handled.
17. St Kilian's School may engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. [It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in St Kilian's School's fundraising activities solely for that purpose.] We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
18. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in School newsletters and magazines, on our intranet [and on our website]. This may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, school camps and school excursions. St Kilian's School will obtain permissions from the student's parent or guardian (and from the student if appropriate) prior to publication to enable St Kilian's School to include such photographs or videos [or other identifying material] in our promotional material or otherwise make this material available to the public such as on the internet. St Kilian's School may obtain permissions annually, or as part of the enrolment process. Permissions obtained at enrolment may apply for the duration of the student's enrolment at St Kilian's School unless St Kilian's School is notified otherwise. Annually, St Kilian's School will remind parents and guardians to notify St Kilian's School if they wish to vary the permissions previously provided. St Kilian's School may include student's and parents' or guardians' contact details in a class list and School directory.
19. If you provide St Kilian's School with the personal information of others, such as other family members, doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them you are disclosing that information to St Kilian's School and why.
